

Market Director - Memphis Farmers Market (MFM)

The Memphis Farmers Market is a non-profit organization serving as a community gathering place dedicated to improving public health nutrition options by providing community education on nutrition and good health through offering access to local food choices while assisting area farmers and artisans with sustainable business opportunities. The MFM strives to generate a sense of local pride while furthering the economic development of our community.

This professional, high-profile position performs varied duties requiring independent business-minded judgment in the best interest of the organization, multi tasking and utilizing the application of established guidelines and procedures for the business of the organization. Directing, planning and supervising of operations of the organization, including support with management of the budget, organizing tasks and setting priorities, as well as oversight of the www.memphisfarmersmarket.org website. Board meeting attendance is required, as well as occasional travel to represent the organization at state level conferences.

Applicants are invited to email resumes to Beth Brock at beth.brock@maac.com or mail them to “Attention Beth Brock” to 6584 Poplar Avenue, Memphis TN 38138.